

4-8 SEPTEMBER
DAVOS, SWITZERLAND

Instructions and relevant information:

Standard symposia consist of 1 keynote lecture of 30 minutes followed by 3 or 4 oral communications of 15 minutes each. Each symposium has a main applicant, and optionally a co-applicant. Please indicate a symposium chair and co-chair; the ESB2023 organizers strongly encourage to indicate a young investigator as co-chair. Chairs can be the same as the applicants.

The keynote speaker is selected by the applicant and indicated in the present application form, whereas the oral communications will be selected by the conference organizers. Please note that:

- Due to financial restrictions the conference organizers will not provide any financial support for the keynote speakers to cover travel, hotel and conference registration costs. Applicant and keynote speaker(s) need to agree on who will cover these costs in advance.
- Upon acceptance of the symposia, the keynote speaker must submit an abstract before March 31st using the abstract submission tool and register to the conference by 16/06/2023 latest.
- Conference organizers reserve the right to slightly modify the symposia title or to merge symposia among them or with other sessions to optimize the homogeneity of the program, the number of oral presentation and the coherence with the session title. Every change will be agreed upon with the symposia applicants
